Guerrillas Blow Up Three Captured Jets

By The Associated Press

A pail of smoke rose over the Jordan desert today and Arab guerrillas said they had blown up three hijacked planes after removing the passengers. They claimed this was only the first step of their warning to Western governments to meet their demands.

Warning Issued

They had said previously the planes would be destroyed with the passengers aboard unless Britain, Switzerland and West Germany released seven Arab commandos in their custody.

The three jetliners—a Trans World Airlines Boeing 707, a Swissair DC8 and a British Overseas Airways Corp. VC10—were blown up at 3:15 p.m. Jordan time, a spokesman for the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine said. This was 9:15 a.m. EDT.

He added that it was "the first step of our warning following the delay of the three Western governments to concede to our terms."

Planes Worth $25 Million

The planes were worth a total of $25 million. Their destruction would raise to close to $50 million the aircraft losses since the front began its air piracy activities last Sunday.

At that time, a Pan American World Airways 747, a jumbo jet worth $24 million, was blown up in Cairo after being hijacked there and releasing its passengers.

Witnesses reporting on the blast in Jordan said it was greeted by shouting and shots fired in the air by guerrillas. Smoke from the airstrip,

Group Okays Clean-Air Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill requiring automobile manufacturers to eliminate 90 per cent of exhaust pollution by 1976 has won unanimous approval of the Senate Public Works Committee.

The clean-air bill, toughest ever considered by Congress, was attacked by Ford Motor Co. after Friday's committee action.

Herbert L. Misch, Ford's vice president for engineering and manufacturing, said the bill "is unrealistic in terms of current or anticipated technological development and poses a major threat not only to the automotive industry but to the American economy."

The bill, Misch added in a statement issued in Detroit, "leaves us enormously dissatisfied and discouraged."

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, author of the measure, said unanimous approval by Public Works "whose members cut across the entire spectrum of Senate opinion," will make it easier to pass the bill.

The bill is scheduled for Senate action Sept. 21. However, if passed by the Senate, it would go to a conference with the House which has approved a milder version. Muskie declined to forecast results of such a conference.

Manson Trial Lawyer Jailed

LOS ANGELES (AP)

Charles M. Manson's attorney has been jailed for the weekend for contempt of court after interrupting testimony at the Sharon Tate murder trial which he said would "tend to crucify Mr. Manson."

The trial judge sentenced attorney Irving Kanarek to three nights in jail Friday after Kanarek's constant objections all but halted testimony about Manson by Danny DeCarlo, a mustachioed former motorcycle gang leader, now a gunsmith.

DeCarlo, once a member of Manson's hippie-style "family," was saying that Manson wanted to start a black-white war in which black people "would have their throats cut and be hung up by their feet."

He said Manson "didn't like the idea that black people were fooling around with the white girls. He was dead set against that."

Kanarek made dozens of objections before Superior Court Judge Charles Older told him: "I find you in direct contempt of court for interrupting and disrupting the testimony of Mr. DeCarlo." Kanarek told the judge: "These are very important matters that are coming out. They tend to crucify Mr. Manson."

It was Kanarek's second contempt sentence of the three-month-old trial. He was jailed for a night on July 29 after he was cited for interrupting star state witness Linda Kasabian.

Chester Morris, 'Boston Blackie' Of Screen, Dies

NEW HOPE, Pa. (AP) — The actor who made "Boston Blackie" an idol of moviegoers in the 1930s and 40s is dead at 69.

Chester Morris, who portrayed the suave, tough private eye, was found dead Friday in his hotel room. Morris had been starring in "The Court Martial of the Caine Mutiny" at the Bucks County Playhouse in this southeastern Pennsylvania community.

Dr. Samuel Willard, Bucks County coroner, said Morris died from an overdose of barbiturates late Friday morning.

Willard did not say if the death was accidental but reported his investigation is continuing.

A veteran of more than 60 films, Morris starred in 26 Boston Blackie movies for Columbia pictures.

38 Americans Among First Hostages Freed

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — The first group of hostages freed by Palestinian guerrillas left Cyprus today for Zurich on a chartered Swissair jet after spending their first night of freedom in Nicosia hotels.

Thirty-eight Americans were reported among them.

In all, there were 66 passengers, mostly American women and children. They arrived Friday night from Amman on a Royal Jordanian Airlines plane. All were aboard the Trans World Airlines and Swissair airliners that were hijacked and flown to a desert strip north of Amman Sunday.

The passengers had been moved from the strip Monday night and taken to hotels in Amman.

"Now that I'm in Nicosia I feel that the nightmare is over," said Greta Huser, of New York City. "When we were in Amman there was shooting every day. Some of the rooms were hit by gunfire. So we were sleeping in the basement and hallways."

She said that when the news came out of Washington Wednesday night that the United States would sell more Phantom jet fighters to Israel, "the guerrillas became more antagonistic toward us."

A 12-year-old American girl, Ruth Smith, of Willingboro, N.J., had been on her way to visit friends in West Germany when her TWA plane was hijacked. She said she would return home now.

Ky Will Return To 'Peace' Table

SAIGON, (AP) — Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky, supervisor of the South Vietnamese delegation to the Paris peace talks, said today he plans to return to the negotiations after a nearly 18-month boycott.

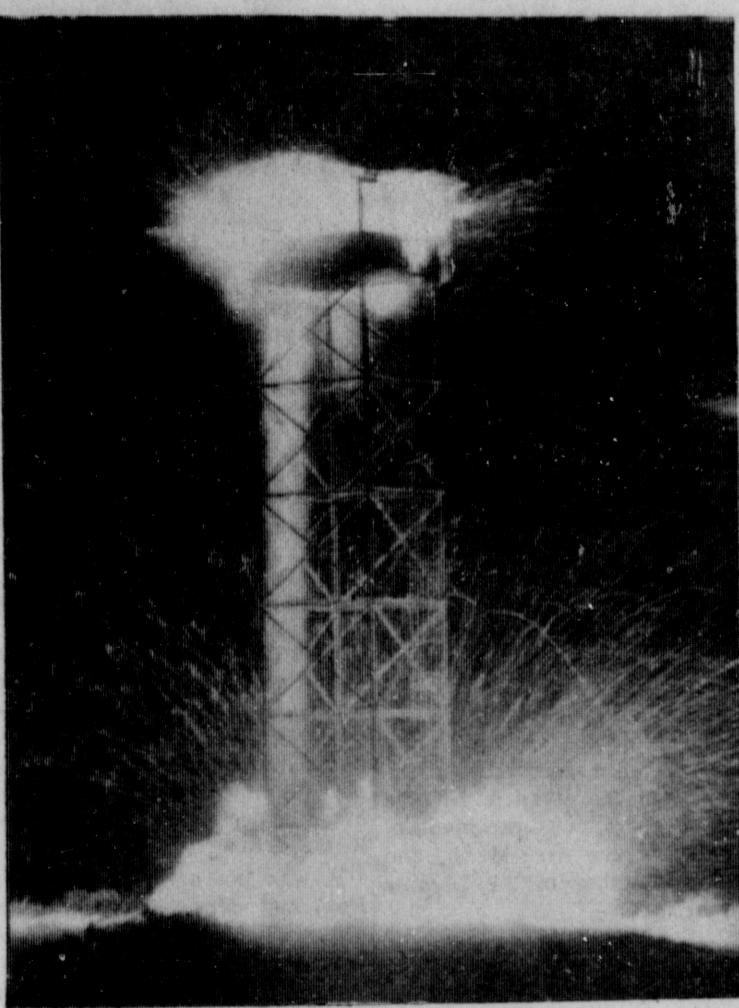

In an unrelated development, the U.S. Command announced the first withdrawals of infantry units from the U.S. 1st Marine Division and said the initial redeployment would cut American strength in Vietnam by 1,400 men.

Informed sources said the entire 20,000-man division will be withdrawn from Vietnam by next May 1 as part of President Nixon's plans to cut the authorized American troop strength to 284,000 by next spring. Current U.S. strength is just under 400,000.

President Nguyen Van Thieu's office and other independent sources left the impression that Ky would not be carrying back any new proposals to end the war in Vietnam.

FOUR MEN WHO spent 90 days in a space station simulator to test a regenerative life support system emerged from the unit Friday expressing a desire for showers and a look at the sun. Whirlwind Upends Boat, 18 Die, 60 Lost

VENICE (AP) — A short-lived whirlwind wrought destruction and death in Venice's suburbs and on the lagoon Friday night when it picked up a crowded passenger boat "like a toothpick," spun it in the air and rocketed it back into the water, where it sank in 30 seconds.

And 30 other persons were rescued. The others of the approximately 60 aboard were missing. The toll on land was 12 killed and about 200 injured, police said.

"I saw the whirlwind whisk by," a gondolier said. "It picked up the motorboat like a toothpick, held it in the air and then threw it back into the water like a cannonball."

No Shouts Heard

"There wasn't a shout. Nobody had time to realize what was going on. I only heard the bang of the metal being twisted as if it were a feather."

The survivors, including Enzo Bullo, the pilot, fell from the craft while it was in the air, police said.

"I tried to steer the wheel away, but I couldn't do a thing," Bullo said. "Suddenly I found myself in midair, the boat plunging into the water under me. I fell into the lagoon, and I looked around for any possible survivors. But I was dazed, half crazy, and I barely managed to get to shore."

125 MPH Wind

Authorities estimated the wind speed at 125 miles per hour. The whirlwind, which is similar to a tornado, splintered houses, shops and street stands, then dissipated over the Gulf of Venice. Electrical power was interrupted throughout the canal city.

Police said damage was confined mainly to private buildings, although a hospital and the soccer stadium sustained heavy damage. The twister spared the city's art treasures in St. Mark's Square and along the Grand Canal, which are downtown.

Tides up to 8 feet and rains of 15 inches were expected as Ella surged ashore.

Rain already was falling in torrents and spreading inland over extreme South Texas and Northeastern Mexico.

Indictment Issued Against Hijacker From Peninsula

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — A U.S. District Court grand jury has indicted a Michigan soldier accused of hijacking a Trans World Airlines jet over Fort Wayne, Ind., and diverting it to Cuba Aug. 24.

Robert J. Labadie, 27, Nahma, Mich., stayed in Cuba. The plane and its 85 passengers and crew members returned to the United States Aug. 25. U.S. Dist. Judge Robert A. Grant set bond at $100,000 on the air piracy indictment.

Labadie had been assigned by the Army as a patient at Valley Forge General Hospital at Phoenixville, Pa. He boarded the Chicago-to-Philadelphia flight on a military half-fare ticket.

Gun-Packing Agents To Ride American Jets

NEW YORK (AP) — Armed federal agents began riding international commercial flights from Kennedy Airport today as an antihijack measure ordered by President Nixon.

Spokesmen for two international carriers said that the program was actually in effect, but they refused for security reasons to say which flights carried armed sky marshals.

Armed Guards On Job

There were published reports that a Trans World Airlines New York-Paris-Rome flight that left at 9 a.m. carried an armed guard and that Pan American World Airways would have a shotgun rider on its evening flight to Paris.

"We're not telling what planes they're on, for obvious reasons," said a TWA spokesman. "It started this morning."

The effectiveness of the program as a deterrent depends in good measure on having the guards aboard without the sure knowledge of passengers or potential hijackers.

100 Agents Reported

More than 100 federal agents reported to Kennedy Airport two hours before Nixon's announcement Friday afternoon of the plan to put air marshals aboard certain international and domestic flights. They immediately plunged into a cram course on airline operations and procedures.

Toting footlockers, suitcases and other gear, the first of the new guard arrived Friday at two crew training centers run by Trans World Airlines and Pan American World Airways.

Recruits Husky

Most of them were in their twenties and thirties, husky and members of the Secret Service or other branches of the Treasury Department.

They formed lines outside of medical offices, stripped to the waist, and went through overseas immunizations, passport processing and picture taking.

Next, the agents—who will wear civilian clothes and conceal pistols under their suit jackets—toured a Boeing 707 and 747 and learned about daily airline operating routines, emergency evacuation procedures and the design of the two planes.

Group Taught Judo

Later, "skymarshals" of the Federal Aviation Administration, who have been specially trained since 1961 in the use of firearms and judo, lectured them on hand-to-hand combat techniques in mockups of an airline cabin.

The White House said that for security reasons it would not divulge which flights would carry guards. None of those involved would talk about the training.

Joint Action Asked

Nixon also said Friday he had directed the Transportation Department to expand the use of electronic surveillance equipment to 22 international airports and others in the country, and wherever possible, to foreign territory.

Hussein Asked To Yield Power In Peace Bid

By The Associated Press

Palestinian guerrillas warring on the one hand with Jordan and on the other with Israel say King Hussein must yield his power to a "national authority" if a new cease-fire is to continue between the commandos and Amman.

The Central Committee of the Palestine Liberation Organization, which generally speaks for all 11 commando groups, said in a broadcast Friday the authority would "run the country and purge antiguerilla elements from the army, the state and police." It would represent "the forces of the people," said the broadcast from Baghdad, Iraq.

When it takes over, the broadcast continued, the ruling authority should pull Jordan's armed forces from the nation's cities and redeploy them along the cease-fire line with Israel.

Jordan, Egypt and Israel agreed to a cease fire Aug. 7, and the guerrillas charge that Hussein has brought most of the army from the front into Amman and other towns to defend against the guerrillas.

Hussein and the Palestinians agreed to their third truce in a week Thursday. But the Baghdad broadcast hinged continuation of the pact on Hussein's acceptance of the new ruling setup. The Central Committee stopped short of demanding outright a new government, however.

Demo Lashes Back At Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's attempt to brand the Democratic-controlled Congress a do-nothing body will fail, says House Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., "because the people know the Democrats always have fought the battles for progress."

McCormack made the statement Friday, replying to a special message in which Nixon implied congressional action will be a key campaign issue with Republicans this fall.

"The Republican attempt to distract from the abject failures of the administration's fiscal policies which have fostered the worst unemployment in six years and the highest interest rates in a century won't really fool the people," McCormack replied.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said it's fine with him if Republicans make Congress an issue. He accused the Nixon administration of delaying its own programs and of "a lot of talk and speeches" but no specific proposals.

In his special message, Nixon listed 59 of his proposals on which congressional action is pending. "We cannot wait for politics," he said. "We must seek a record of achievement all can share."

Parochial Issue Goes To High Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — Opposing sides have joined in asking the Supreme Court to decide whether state funds may be used to supplement salaries of lay teachers in parochial schools.

Third Court Case

If the high court agrees to decide whether a 1969 Rhode Island law is constitutional, it would become the third church-state case marked for Supreme Court review.

The Rhode Island law, calling for state supplements of up to 15 per cent for teachers in non-public schools, was declared unconstitutional June 15 by a three-judge federal court at Providence, R.I.

Short By 80 Units:

Need Is Shown For More Area Housing

By CLINT DUNATHAN

Wherever housing is provided for the low income elderly in a community, the experience is that additional units are found to be necessary.

That is the situation in this area, says David L. Jones, Escanaba housing director.

"At this time it appears there is a need for 80 to 100 more units," said Jones, who came to Escanaba from Livonia, a suburb of 110,000 population west of Detroit, where he was assistant director of public works.

Here are the statistics on how Escanaba came to have an 18-story Harbor Tower apartment for its elderly of low-income—and still be short of housing for its senior citizens:

The Escanaba Housing Commission originally applied to Housing and Urban Development for a project to provide 300 units, based on the need indicated by surveys.

Waiting List Of 100

In the necessary negotiations the scope of the housing was requested at 200 units—and approval was granted for 175.

Harbor Tower was opened this summer and all but 14 of its 175 units are now occupied and these will be filled within a week, Jones reports.

"We have more than 100 applicants for housing on our waiting list presently," said Jones. "This is a need that can be met by future projects that may be sponsored by the city in conjunction with the county or some other governmental units in the area."

The objective of the Housing Commission is to get another project going. It is talking at this time of a program for from 50 to 80 units.

Top Rental $45

There are some rather obvious advantages to senior citizens in finding housing such as that provided in Harbor Tower. Rentals are based on ability to pay, with none exceeding $45 a month.

There's a criteria for acceptance, including limitations on the amount of income and assets of the individual. Net income may not exceed $3,100 for one person, $3,700 for a couple; and assets may not exceed $15,000 total—that's bank account, stocks, and bonds. Automobiles, TV, radio, and other personal property are not classified as assets.

"Because there is no public transportation here, a larger percentage of Harbor Tower residents have autos than in metropolitan centers," Jones noted. "For this reason we have found there is a need for 15 to 20 more parking spaces for cars."

Besides the "money angle" what's the advantage of residing in public housing like Harbor Tower?

Most uniquely, perhaps, is the satisfaction and rewards senior citizens find in living in comfortable quarters—with the acquaintanceship and company of others in their age group.

Tenant Affairs

A Tenant Affairs Committee is being organized to provide residents a voice to make their wishes known. Jones calls it "an aide to management" and is encouraging its organization.

"We are looking forward to setting up an adult education committee, among others, and there have already been conversations about this with Robert Koski, Escanaba Community School director. Most people have special skills they will be able to share with others."

A club for the enjoyment of social life is another of the committees expected to be formed. Harbor Tower has a room which is available to those interested in arts and crafts, another for social affairs, and a still larger room where groups can be entertained.

Friendly Escanaba

Contacts and associations will be encouraged and one of the services the residents can perform for each other is through a health committee, which can bring visits, cards, company and comfort to those who are ill.

Jones brings to his job of housing director in Escanaba a real appreciation for the community's assets. Coming from a metropolitan area, he and Mrs. Jones find the air clean, fresh and invigorating—and the people friendly.

"I wonder if Escanaba people appreciate that beautiful park," Jones wondered with a smile. "Escanaba and its people are fortunate in many ways."

Mr. and Mrs. Jones have two adult children, a son and daughter. He served in the U. S. Marines, lived in Livonia for 47 years, was president of its Taxpayers Association, and was a member of the Livonia Council.

Immunity From Subpoenas Eyed For Reporters

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — It may be necessary to give newsmen immunity from grand jury subpoenas "in times of stress" so lines of communications can be maintained with militants, a federal judge says.

The observation was made this week by Judge Charles M. Merrill of the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals during a hearing on an appeal by New York Times reporter Earl Caldwell.

The newsman was held in contempt last June after refusing to testify before a federal grand jury investigating the Black Panthers.

Merrill, in questioning, said it is important to keep lines of communication open with Panthers and similar groups so their statements and philosophies can be known and assessed.

The case was taken under study for a ruling later by Merrill and two other federal judges on the court.

Hart-Romney Debate Fails To Materialize

DETROIT (AP) — Fireworks were at a minimum Friday when a smiling Democratic Senator Philip A. Hart and his Republican challenger, Mrs. LeRoy Romney, confronted each other before this Michigan Municipal League in Detroit.

It was not a formal debate. Hart and Mrs. Romney gave prepared speeches to the assembled delegates.

Hart, repeating earlier calls for a reordering of national priorities, said that at the end of 1969 there were more than 2,000 criminal cases which had awaited trial for more than two years, "but only $128 million was spent on the entire federal judiciary system."

More than that, he said, was spent "on a single C-5A military transport plane."

Hart said the nation should make its court system a "first-line defense against crimes involving people and nature."

Mrs. Romney, in a speech mildly critical of Hart, said the three "crucial" issues for the 70's are "equal opportunity housing, the growing disrespect for our legal system, and the need to return power to the local and state governments."

Labeling Hart one of the "staunchest advocates of big federal government," she supported lessening the federal role under the "New Federalism."

"Power to the people," she said, "doesn't mean just to those people in Washington."

In calling for a change in spending priorities, Hart said issues should be compared, including "a commitment to open housing and then a community's refusal to deliver."

Questioned later, he declined to say whether he referred to the recent controversy in Warren over federal funds for housing involving Mrs. Romney's husband, George, secretary of housing and urban development.

Hart said only that "there should be no federal money for programs not available equally to all."

Nixon Neighbor May Be Involved In Stolen Stocks

MIAMI (AP) — A federal grand jury and the FBI are investigating a $195,000 loan issued from C.C. "Bebe" Rebozo's bank to an Atlanta businessman who put up 900 shares of stolen IBM stock as collateral, The Miami News reported Friday.

The News said Charles L. Lewis took out the loan July 30, 1968, from the Key Biscayne bank owned by Rebozo, the next-door neighbor and close friend of President Nixon.

Rebozo called for payment of the loan and sold most of the stock to cover it, the News reported, after an FBI agent inquired about the stock last October.

At that time, the sale was possible because the FBI and a New York stock brokerage firm, E.F. Hutton & Co., actual owner of the stock, were only beginning to unravel the theft, the News said.

$200 Check Now Conscience Fund Starter In City

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) — City Council has established a "conscience fund" after receiving a $200 check from a man now living in Washington, D.C.

The check was accompanied by a letter explaining that in 1942, when the man was a freshman at Colorado State University in Fort Collins, he was involved in the removal of a silver spruce tree from a cemetery. He said he sent the check as restitution.

The new fund will be used at the discretion of the council, possibly to plant a grove of trees.

Sponberg Says: UMU 'No Home' For Dissident College Goers

YPSILANTI (AP) — Student violence "will find no home" at Eastern Michigan University this year, Harold E. Sponberg, EMU president, said Friday.

The Ypsilanti campus "shall not become a place where bullies set the agenda nor will it be a place where fear rules the rostrum," Sponberg told a conference of about 600 faculty members.

EMU was the scene of several serious student demonstrations last spring.

Sponberg would not say directly if he expected trouble at the school this year but commented that he doesn't predict "that there will be no attempts by radicals, from on and off the campus, to interfere with academic life at Eastern."

He also did not specify what action the university would take in the event of disruptions.

"One of the most direct threats is from those radicals who say that they reject reason and will rely on violence," he said. "They advocate destruction and openly admit that they will destroy buildings and with those buildings they destroy people and the life work of scholars."

Saying the university has neither the wish nor the right to end dissent, Sponberg warned:

"Violence and force are not proper components of dissent. . . . The philosophy of violence and nihilism has no place in the academic world and it will find no home here."

VFW Lists Items To Be Discussed At Monday Meet

Hiawatha Post 2998, VFW, will meet Monday evening at the post clubrooms with the meeting slated to begin at 8 with Commander Mark DeGrand presiding.

The VFW auxiliary is scheduled to meet the same night at the clubrooms.

Several items of business will be discussed by the post with the 14th District convention in Menominee Sept. 26-27 highlighting the evening's agenda.

Anyone planning to attend the convention and in need of housing is asked to contact James Levesque, Harbor House Motel, 3108 Snore Drive, Menominee, Mich., for reservations.

Also on the meeting program will be a discussion about a membership dinner. Commander Durand said the only way this dinner can become a success is to have full cooperation of all members.

Milliken Prepares Program To Deal With Campus Unrest

EAST LANSING (AP) — Gov. William Milliken has declared he is determined to avoid in Michigan tragedies that have occurred on campuses in other states.

The governor made his statement Friday in remarks before the 77th State Police recruit school graduation at East Lansing.

It is possible to avoid tragedies such as have occurred at Kent State University, Milliken said, "when State Police forces and the National Guard are adequately trained to deal with civil disorders and when they know how to keep cool in the face of an angry mob."

"I think it is clear that we are beyond the point where campus violence that will have to be met by state action is only a remote possibility," Milliken said.

The governor said he has the ultimate responsibility for enforcement of the laws of the state and the preservation of public order. He added he must meet this responsibility through agencies such as State Police.

The governor listed five steps he has taken to help prevent and control campus disorders, as follows:

"1. The training program, beginning under the Mandatory Police Training Act I signed this year, will strengthen local law enforcement ability to respond in a professional manner to incidents of violence and disorders on our campuses."

"2. I am announcing the creation of a committee on collective violence, within the State Crime Commission, to improve the ability of state and local agencies to prevent and control incidents of collective violence in our urban areas, our suburbs, and on our campuses."

"3. I have called on the Office of Criminal Justice programs to increase the police communications and contact on campuses when there are no disturbances, through the funding of special workshops and seminars."

"4. I am completing a special memorandum to college presidents outlining the role of state agencies in the event of violent disruption on our college campuses. Such a memorandum was issued last year and is being updated for the benefit of each college administration."

"5. My recent decision not to implement the provisions of the federal law enabling an early release for 2500 Michigan National Guardsmen will assure that the guardsmen are the best qualified and the best trained available."

Milliken told the State Police he will have a tough decision in finding a successor to Col. Fredrick Davis, retiring as State Police director, but will try to select the best qualified man for the job.

A special feature of the ceremonies was the presentation of bravery awards to Troopers William Banks and William Lawrence of the Petoskey post for preventing a plane hijacking last April at the Pellston Airport.

Briefly Told

World War I Veterans, Bar-racks 1128 and Auxiliary will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. at the VFW Hall. Plans will be made for a special noon meeting to be held on Sept. 29. A social hour and lunch will follow the meeting.

Webster PTA will meet Monday at the school. Parents may meet with teachers from 7:15 to 7:30 p. m. and the regular meeting will begin at 7:30. Michael Youngs will be the guest speaker for the night and will present a talk on, "Drugs in the Community."

School Shutdowns Now 13 In State; Bay de Noc Out

Contract agreements at Vassar, Oscoda and New Haven have whittled the number of teacher walkouts in Michigan school districts to 13.

In the Vassar dispute, school officials also agreed to rehire 75 teachers fired earlier for not attending classes.

However, at Westwood in suburban Detroit, authorities said they fired 153 teachers for being on strike. In the district, around 5 teachers have defied the strike and along with 8 substitute teachers are conducting classes.

In the Upper Peninsula, a lock-out remained unsettled at the Nahma Big Bay de Noc district.

Other elementary and secondary school districts with unsettled strikes include Kalamazoo, South Redford, Romeo, Warren Woods, Clawson, Highland Park, Inkster, Eaton Rapids, Dryden, Alpena, Rapid River and Cheboygan.

Regents Okay Richard Post's Security Plan

By CLINT DUNATHAN
A young man whose work is expected to strengthen security measures in the public and private sectors is visiting in Escanaba this weekend.

Richard S. Post, head of the Department of Police Science at Wisconsin State University at Platteville, is also co-author of a book that is expected to have considerable impact on the future of security administration.

Post and his wife, the former Penelope Neumeier, and their two children, are spending the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neumeier, 18335 10th Ave. S. The Police Science department at Wisconsin State at Platteville is two years old and Post assisted in its organization. There are a growing number of such departments in colleges and universities as the need for improvement in approaches to security becomes more immediate.

Campus Security
Post's knowledge in the field was called upon by Wisconsin State University regents on Friday (yesterday) in their program toward tighter campus security.

Meeting at Whitewater, the regents approved the objectives of a survey on campus security presented earlier to the board's business committee by Post, who told the regents:

"The security function in the Wisconsin State Universities System is suffering from a lack of management attention. The security program on the state university campuses can be categorized by a lack of manpower, training, equipment and labor saving devices for intrusion and fire detection. Few campus programs of security within the system can be considered effective."

Steps Approved
Post suggested that security be considered a management level activity, that all campus security officers be given the power of arrest, that modern fire detection and electronic surveillance equipment be installed on all campuses of the system and that a better security training program be instituted.

The regents authorized these steps:

- Establish a position of assistant co-ordinator of security and protection for the system.
- Establish a position of director of safety and security at each state university.
- Provide funds for employment of part time security personnel.
- Provide funds to strengthen security of sites and buildings.

Post and Arthur Kingsbury, chairman of the Public Service Department of Macomb County Community College, authored the book "Security Administration, an Introduction" published by Charles C. Thomas of Springfield.

Security Measures
"Besides being a text book it establishes priorities in the field of security and is the first work of its kind to put together in one volume the concepts of security in a coherent framework," said Post.

The book came out last Tuesday and two journals in the field of security have already accorded it favorable review. The volume, has 317 pages, and sells for $18. The scope of research is indicated in a 2,600 word entry bibliography.

Post said he was particularly desirous of showing how security differs from law enforcement, how prevention is a tool of security, and how security measures may be successfully applied to business, industrial, and governmental programs.

Post is a graduate of Michigan State University's College of Criminal Justice.

Mrs. H. Young Dies Friday

Mrs. Henry (Antonia E.) Young, 1648 16th Ave. S. died last evening at her home after a lengthy illness.

She was born Oct. 25, 1885 in Germany and had resided in Cleveland until moving to Escanaba six years ago.

She is survived by her husband, Henry; one daughter, Mrs. Ralph (Ruth) Tippett of Escanaba, two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; two sisters, Hattie Deutschmann of Escanaba and Mrs. Helen Brunet of Cleveland.

Friends may call at the Anderson Funeral Home from 7 to 9 p. m. Sunday and complete funeral services will be held at 11 a. m. Monday at the funeral home with the Rev. Philip Lyon officiating. Burial will be in Gardens of Rest Cemetery.

Detroit Police Commissioner Quits City Job

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Police Commissioner Patrick V. Murphy resigned Friday to become head of New York City's 30,000-member Police Department.

"A crack at that job is irresistible," Murphy said. "There is no doubt that this is a tremendous opportunity for me. It's one of the top spots in police work."

Murphy, 49, a former deputy inspector in New York, will leave Detroit Oct. 1, to take charge of the nation's largest police department.

Murphy came to Detroit from Washington, D.C., only nine months ago at $31,800 annual salary. He will make $41,000 in New York.

A city hall spokesman said Detroit Mayor Roman Gribbs "worked hard" to convince Murphy to stay in Detroit and offered to make the commissioner the highest paid official in the city. Gribbs, currently the highest paid, receives $35,000.

Award Degrees To Five Medical Technologists

Graduation exercises were held for five medical technologists by the school of Medical Technology at St. Francis Hospital on Friday.

Five students — Kathryn Bruce, Michael Thomas, Judith Barron, Elizabeth Chenier and Alton Westman — completed the fourth year for their college degree at St. Francis Hospital in the School of Medical Technology and received their degree from their respective universities (which are directly affiliated with the St. Francis School of Medical Technology).

Miss Kathryn Bruce is valedictorian of her class at Michigan Technological University in addition to completing her national examination in medical technology in the upper quarter of those taking the examination in the country.

Miss Barron attended St. Norbert College; Miss Chenier, Central Michigan University; and Thomas and Westman, Northern Michigan University.

Attending the graduation exercises were members of the laboratory staff, Mrs. Mary Ann Barron, teaching supervisor at St. Francis Hospital, Dr. Roland E. Berry, director of the School of Medical Technology, and Joseph Laskar, administrator at St. Francis Hospital, who was an enthusiastic supporter of the School of Medical Technology.

The School of Medical Technology at St. Francis Hospital came into being in 1968 and is the only school so accredited in the Upper Peninsula by the American Medical Association, the American Society of Clinical Pathologists, and the National Registry of Medical Technologists. The stated purpose of the School is to provide well-trained laboratory technologists for the hospitals of the Upper Peninsula. So far, however, the limited size of each class because of limited space for the School, and the increased demands for services from the hospital's clinical laboratory has necessitated employment of all their graduates to date at the St. Francis laboratory.

The faculty expressed hopes that the School may eventually be able to provide trained people to neighboring hospitals where such skilled technical help is urgently needed at the present time.

The fact that these people have been available to St. Francis Hospital has accounted for most of the recent new services offered by the Laboratory Service. Such services include the programming of the desk-top computer recently introduced to facilitate larger volumes of laboratory calculations than was possible by other means, and the double-beam spectrophotometer which has made available several blood enzyme tests which were not previously possible at St. Francis Hospital.

Death Claims Mrs. Froberg

Mrs. Minnett J. Froberg, 82, formerly of 1104 S. 14th St., died Friday evening at the MediCenter. She was born May 23, 1888 and was a life member of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church and was also a member of the Women of the Church. Her husband, Eric, died Oct. 10, 1961.

She is survived by three sons, John of Escanaba, Thomas of Chicago and Miles of Kenosha, Wis.; one daughter, Mary of Chicago; three sisters, Mrs. Anna Campbell of Oklahoma City, Okla., Mrs. Jesse Dugeno of Yakama, Wash. and Mrs. Besse Sandell of Milwaukee; five grandchildren, five great grandchildren and one great great grandchild.

Friends may call at the Anderson Funeral Home from 4 to 9 p. m. Monday and the body will be taken to St. Stephen's Episcopal Church at 10 a. m. Tuesday. Funeral services will be conducted there at 11 a. m. with the Rev. Ben Helmer officiating and burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery.

Gremlin Outdoes Others In Prices

DETROIT (AP) — American Motors Corp. set the manufacturer's suggested retail price Friday for its basic 1971 Gremlin at $1,899, the lowest price of any of the domestic-built minicars.

It is still above the 1971 price of $1,780 planned by Volkswagen, the top-selling import, for its basic VW Beetle sedan.

Earlier in the week, General Motors Corp. put a basic price tag of $2,901 on its new subcompact, the Vega 2300, and Ford Motor Co. priced its Pinto at $1,919.

AMC became the first U. S. automaker to enter the subcompact field to meet foreign competition when it introduced its shoe-shaped 1970 Gremlin in the spring. The automaker said its new price for its two-passenger Gremlin represents only a one per cent increase over 1970 models.

The 1971 Gremlin goes on sale Tuesday.

Bark River Classes Begin

Confirmation Classes at Salem Lutheran Church will begin Monday and will start with seventh graders at 3:45 p. m. at the parsonage followed by ninth graders at 6:30 p. m. The Senior Luther League will also meet at the parsonage at 7:45 p. m. Monday. Church School classes will begin on Sunday, Sept. 20 at 9:45 a. m.

The Fall meeting for the Northeast District will be held in Skandia on Tuesday, Sept. 15.

Church Council Members are asked to meet with Dr. Matson for the Church Council Member Conference on Tuesday evening, Sept. 15, at Christ the King Lutheran Church in Escanaba at 7:30 p. m.

Death Claims C. J. Hubert

Clarence J. Hubert, 65, of 149 S. 15th St., died at 9:15 p. m. Friday at the Baraga County Memorial Hospital in L'Anse following a short illness.

He was born July 3, 1905 in Escanaba and had been employed by the Chicago & North Western Railway until his retirement. Mr. Hubert was a member of St. Joseph's Church and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

He is survived by his widow, the former Blanche Vorin; two daughters, Mrs. Diane Picard of Escanaba and Mrs. Richard (Judy) Burke of Munising; five grandchildren; one brother, George Hubert of Racine, Wis.; and four sisters, Sister M. Verda of Manitowoc, Wis., Sister M. Germaine of Green Bay, Mrs. Frank Steede of Escanaba and Mrs. Ray Sauter of California.

The body has been removed to the Boyce Funeral Home and funeral arrangements are incomplete at this time.

Mrs. Waznick Taken By Death

Mrs. Violet Waznick, 77, of Rte. 2, W. DePere died early this morning.

The former Violet Grignon was born June 19, 1893 in Garden and she had spent most of her life in Gladstone. For the past 16 years she had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Earl (Mary) Paquette of W. DePere.

She was married to Joseph Waznick June 25, 1925 in Gladstone and he died Dec. 16, 1958.

Survivors include, one daughter, Mrs. Paquette; 16 grandchildren and three great grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Maude Coyle of Trout Creek.

Friends may call from 4 to 9:30 p. m. Sunday at the Skradski Funeral Home and parish prayers will be recited at 8 p. m. Funeral services will be conducted at 9 a. m. Monday at All Saints Church with Msgr. Matt Laviolette officiating and burial will be in Fernwood Cemetery.

Buyer Demand Upswing Likely

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Inflated prices and high interest rates continue to dampen consumer spending, especially on automobiles, but a report by the University of Michigan Survey Research Center indicates consumer attitudes and inclination to buy may be slightly on the upswing.

The Center's Quarterly Survey of Consumer Attitudes and Inclinations to Buy, conducted regularly since 1951, showed a third quarter improvement in expectations about business trends.

A national cross-section of 1,350 persons answering the survey indicated a change in expectations on the consumer's part. About 38 per cent responding expected business conditions to improve in the next 12 months, while 34 per cent expected improvement and 41 per cent expected deterioration.

The report claimed consumer demand is "expected to grow at a slow rate" in the immediate future.

Moving House Hit By Car, Man Dies

McMILLAN (AP) — A combination of bright sunlight and a moving house led to the death of a 22-year-old Luce County man Friday. Sheriff's deputies said Michael William Maloney was killed when sunlight partially blinded him and his car ran into the rear of a house being moved down a road in the Upper Peninsula County.

War For Dollars

Transportation Secretary John A. Volpe's decision to throw $5-billion worth of federal muscle behind efforts to improve public transportation is only the opening push in what promises to be a long and bitter battle over transportation policy.

It already is drawing anguished protests from auto-oriented quarters which have jumped to the conclusion that under challenge is the sanctity of the Federal Highway Trust Fund, the treasure chest that has been financing the nation's massive superroad construction programs.

Specifically, Volpe has decreed that henceforth special provisions for public transport, such as exclusive lanes and exits, in part will determine allocation of federal funds, which can come to as much as 90 per cent of the total, to urban construction projects in order to "encourage the greatest use of buses in preference to individual automobiles" by the nation's commuting hordes.

Although only bus facilities are mentioned and the decision ostensibly is intended in part to head off pressure in Congress and elsewhere to tap the trust fund for non-highway purposes, such as new rail transit systems, the latter is exactly what fund defenders fear is coming.

The Federal Highway Trust Fund was established by Congress in 1956 to finance the Interstate program, now, more than 70 per cent completed. Fed largely by the four-cent federal gasoline levy, plus other motorists' taxes, it has been a cornucopia through years of tight budgets in other non-defense spending areas. Something like $50 billion has flowed through the fund to the contractors, and the balance now stands at $5 billion, with income comfortably exceeding expenditures.

Since it all comes exclusively from motorists, the highway lobby fiercely opposes tapping the fund for any purpose other than the creation and care of roads for motorists.

Critics, however, contend that the fund's exclusivity has encouraged an overemphasis on highways that has crippled urban transportation. Public transit deteriorates and disappears while highways proliferate and the spending imbalance is such that something like 20 times more public money is pumped into roads than into mass transit.

Some planners would correct that by replacing the highway trust fund with a general transportation fund committed to financing a balanced national system of roads, mass transit, railroads and air facilities.

The highway lobby, naturally enough, does not buy that and has a lot on its side — the current law and theoretically, millions of American motorists.

But the transit forces also have some big guns, notably Sen. Jennings Randolph, (D-W. Va.) chairman of the Senate Public Works Committee. Randolph, keeper of the congressional pork barrel, has let it be known he is open to changes directed toward balancing transportation spending. He has himself proposed using some trust funds to aid bus systems in larger cities.

There also is increasing sentiment in the states, as disclosed at the National Governor's Conference, for a change in spending emphasis.

Much more is going to be heard on the issue. The $5 billion at stake assures that.

The Nixon Doctrine

Vice President Agnew's assurance during his Asian trip that the United States would not pull American troops out of South Korea until that country has received modern weapons from us is in keeping with the Nixon Doctrine.

It is President Nixon's policy to provide moral and material support to countries which show a desire to combat Communist aggression. He wants to reduce the number of American troops stationed overseas permanently, which can have both good and bad effects.

The good effect is that President Nixon has told U. S. allies that the United States will not carry their military burdens by itself, that the protracted conflict against Communist imperialism must be a joint defense if it is to be effective.

Large numbers of American servicemen are not conducive to good relations between this and the host countries. Too many U. S. troops give the impression of an occupying force and can disrupt the native economy because of the influx of American dollars which drives up prices, to the distress of the local inhabitants.

The bad effect is that the Nixon Doctrine could be envisioned as a smokescreen for a general American retreat around the world.

If the Communists win in South Vietnam, the Nixon Doctrine won't encourage other countries to resist aggression, but will, instead, encourage them to make best deals possible with the invaders, something the Thais, for example, already are thinking about. The doctrine then will appear to be merely a cover for a return of the isolationism of the 1930s.

The Nixon Doctrine should not be allowed to become a substitute for a dynamic America foreign policy which would deny to the Communists the fruits of aggression.

Smeester addressed the Menominee City Council Tuesday night.

Pressures Building For State Schooling

By DON HOENSHELL
Panax Capitol Bureau

LANSING — Political and legal pressures are building toward the full state takeover of the costs of running Michigan's public schools.

Gov. William Milliken — and Democrats in the legislature — are driving for a massive shift of the costs from the property to income tax.

The most compelling legal move was taken by a Lincoln Park mother whose three children will go on half-days this year because the school system is broke.

Forcing The Issue

Mrs. Christopher Smith, whose husband is secretary of the Lincoln Park Board of Education, is forcing the issue in court of the promise of the 1963 state constitution:

"The legislature shall maintain and support a system of free public elementary and secondary schools as defined by law . . ."

She charges, through her attorney, State Sen. Roger Craig (D-Deerborn), that half days or less in the classroom deprive her children of equal protection under the U.S. Constitution.

Circuit Judge Donald L. Reisig has ordered the case tried on its merits starting the week of Oct. 5. The lawsuits will try to force Lincoln Park to offer a full educational program.

Statewide Impact

"It certainly could have statewide implications," said Dr. John W. Porter, acting superintendent of public instruction. "What Mrs. Smith is saying is that there should be equal educational opportunity."

"And it's certainly evident to the (state) staff that Lincoln Park could not operate at the level of 1969-70. There was no way we could avoid letting Lincoln Park go on a reduced schedule."

"The courts may well rule that the state is solely responsible for the costs of the public schools."

The political strategy is to force Lincoln Park to offer full-day sessions until it runs out of money. Then the state would be pressured to keep the schools open.

Cites Text Ruling

Porter said another legal stepping stone was the Michigan Supreme Court ruling that school districts must furnish textbooks and all other materials required for courses of learning credit.

He is making a textbook cost survey now to develop figures for the legislature, adding that the statewide cost could be as much as $100 million. Milliken said there is no state money to meet it now.

The state board has allowed 11 districts to go on reduced schedules this fall. Lincoln Park is the only one facing a financial crisis. The others lack space.

In the past the state has bailed out school districts in Detroit and Inkster and other places and has granted extra money to those which absorbed students from the defunct Nankin Mills district.

Package Sidetracked

State school aid this year reached a record $969 million, still less than half of the total school cost in Michigan. Local property taxes make up the rest. Milliken's educational reform package — sidetracked in its major provisions during an election year — still calls for a 16-mill ceiling on property taxes for school purposes. The state average is 24.

State Sen. Sander M. Levin (D-Berkley), his Democratic opponent for governor Nov. 3, feels that Milliken's plan isn't enough. Lawmakers raised cigarette taxes $35 million and wiped out income tax credits totaling $92 million to beef up educational funds.

Tax sources are running dry and Mrs. Smith's lawsuit is forcing the legal and political decision machinery.

Under the reduced schedule, Lincoln Park grades 3-6 will be in class two hours and 45 minutes a day; seventh graders two hours and 40 minutes; and 8-12 will go two hours and 20 minutes.

Millages Lose

The average classroom load will be 495 hours for the 3-6 grade bracket. Under normal conditions 900 class hours are required.

Lincoln Park, which has a large population of senior citizens with children no longer in school, has lost four millage elections in a row. Its industrial tax base is three per cent.

"We could sell our home and move but there are others who can't," said Mrs. Smith. "It's better to fight than run."

She said the only industrial property left in landlocked Lincoln Park was snapped up by the state for a liquor warehouse, on which no local taxes are paid.

Neighbors Richer

Lincoln Park is surrounded by richer school districts — Ecorse, Southgate, Detroit and Allen Park.

"We are a bedroom community," said Mrs. Charles Higgins. "We have no place to build industry. The community is getting older. We have three parochial schools and that doesn't help."

Mrs. Robert Carnahan, a kindergarten teacher at LeBlanc elementary school, said she is sending her twin sons to Huff Junior High School, the biggest in Michigan with 3,000 students.

"Last year one of the best intramural programs in the state (at Huff) went down the drain," she said.

Mrs. David Kulchor said the system has trimmed away everything but the basics, leaving students unarmed with the extras provided by other districts.

No Athletics

"There are no athletics or recreation," she said. "Now the senior citizens will complain about our kids being in the shopping centers and on the streets."

"There are 12,000 students in Lincoln Park and that's a lot of children to have on the streets."

Mrs. Charles Higgins, whose husband is vice president of the school board, said the financial crisis has stripped away drivers training, athletics, art classes.

"All of these go to make better citizens," she said. "Even the libraries are being staffed by PTA mothers."

Circuit Judge Reisig blocked a move by Assistant Atty. Gen.

Gerald Young, representing the state board, to dismiss the suit or have it transferred to the state Court of Appeals.

Violates Constitution?

Craig argued that the reduced-day session separates Lincoln Park students from all others in the state and violates the equal protection clause of the United States constitution. He referred to the textbook ruling by the Supreme Court.

"If that's a requirement of public education, then basic education itself is a requirement. I'd like to put the members of the state board on the stand and ask them if this is equal education."

So the legal battle is joined by Mrs. Smith versus the State Board of Education.

The result — something legislators even now are trying through other means to achieve — could be the full state payment of the costs of education in Michigan.

Letters To The Press

THE TEACHER

What is a teacher? A fountainhead of intelligence whereby we can drink our fill of knowledge? A natural community resource rich with educational potential which he is willing to share with youth?

No, a teacher is neither of these things. He is an object of ridicule; an ominous figure of fear and a threat to the economic stability of our educational institution. He is a drain pipe for our tax dollars; a whipping post for scorn and disrespect. He's like a bloodhound who has caught the scent of a quick buck and an easy means to tree the varmint.

For, after all, teaching is an easy profession. Once a person has floated through four or five years of college he can sit behind a desk all day. Even better, his working hours are relatively short; eight to three.

Never mind that he may have to correct 120 papers or worry about the boys getting injured by shop machinery. Don't count the fact that he may have to pay off the loan he needed to get his teaching degree. Don't even consider grading and marking report cards, parent-teacher conferences, making out C. A. 39's, giving standard achievement tests or making lesson plans.

And above all, don't think for one minute that he cares about your child. He doesn't worry because your child is a slow learner or an under-achiever who is just too lazy for his own good. He doesn't care if your child has emotional problems or has difficulty interacting with others. It doesn't even phase him if your child gets pregnant or gets caught stealing. All that matters is your dollar in his paycheck. That's what he really cares about.

And as for school spirit and civic pride, show me one teacher who likes the town in which he works. Why you'd have to look real hard to find any teacher who is proud of the school, the students or the community. Yes, I guess you'd Opening lead—three of diamonds.

It is certainly not difficult to beat five spades if you see all four hands. West leads his singleton diamond and, when declarer plays a trump at trick two, West wins with the ace, leads a club to his partner's ace, and ruffs the diamond return to put the contract down one.

But, in real life, this method of defense is not so easy to find. Not being gifted with second sight, West is far more likely to try to put partner on lead with a heart at trick three, particularly in view of East's heart raise during the bidding. If West did lead a heart, it would prove fatal, since declarer's only losers would be a spade and a club.

The obvious question is how West is supposed to know that a club return at trick three will win the contract, while a heart return will not.

The answer is that, in order to consistently solve this type of problem, the defenders must make use of a weapon that is generally known as the suit-preference convention.

When West leads his singleton diamond—and it is easy for East to recognize the lead as a singleton—East is in a position to designate his entry card by the size of the diamond he plays on dummy's ace.

Since East's entry card is in clubs, the lowest ranking suit, he plays his lowest diamond, the deuce, on the ace. By the same token, if East happened to hold the ace of hearts as his entry card, he would play the jack of diamonds on the ace to show his interest in a higher ranking suit return, namely, a heart.

Mother's Complaints Cool Off Phone Calls

Dear Ann Landers: I read with much interest the letter from the mother who sat by the phone wondering why her son didn't call. Her self-pitying tone, "After all the sacrifices I made for him . . ." was the tipoff.

That sounds like my mother-in-law and I have an answer for your reader.

Dear Ma: Your son might call you more often if you didn't start every conversation with, "Well, it's about time you picked up the phone. I was beginning to think maybe you moved out of the country. But, of course, I am only your mother. Who am I to expect special treatment from you?"

Next is a load of complaints: "I haven't slept for two weeks. My rheumatism is killing me. My feet hurt something terrible. The doctor said maybe I should take the bunions off. The neighbors kids make so much noise I've had a headache for three days. My grocery bill was $31 last week and I didn't buy anything."

Then there are the "small requests": Could you drop by the drugstore and bring me a bottle of rubbing alcohol, some Geritol and a tube of zinc ointment? And stop by the shoemaker and pick up my shoes. Call the newspaper and tell them the paper boy throws the paper under the porch at least three times a week. And can you go by Aunt Lena's and get my noodle ring pan. She's had it for two months."

On and on and on it goes. He never gets off the phone in less than 30 minutes and all she has done is needle him, complain and ask for things.

I'll bet if you print this at least 5 million women will say — "I hope my mother-in-law reads Ann Landers' column today. Maybe she'll learn something." — One of the Five Million.

Dear One: Here it is — and I hope YOUR mother-in-law reads it. Mine doesn't need to.

Dear Ann Landers: I want to marry a man who has been twice divorced. His daughter is 18. Betty is from his first marriage. (He won custody.) She succeeded in breaking up his second.

I am very fond of Betty and the feeling is mutual. She has been rejected by two women and I want to give her a happy home. Here's the trouble: In a moment of closeness Betty confessed she is on speed. Also, she had a second key made to her father's car and while he is at the office she rides around town. He, of course, doesn't know about this.

I have three teen-agers who have always been truthful and well behaved. They are leaders in school and do not smoke or drink. I was horrified when Betty told me what she was up to. She asked me not to tell her father, so of course I won't.

Redeemer Church To Begin Fall, Winter Schedule

Church of the Redeemer, Presbyterian of Manistique will begin the fall-winter schedule this Sunday, Sept. 13. Sunday Morning worship will begin at 10:30 a. m., with Church School at 9:15 a. m.

Due to the pastor's absence, to attend the fall meeting of the Presbytery of Mackinac, guest worship leader this Sunday will be Mrs. John Swanson. Mrs. Swanson is a former Manistique resident and is now an officer in the Presbyterian Church at Munising.

The Senior High Westminster Fellowship will meet this Sunday afternoon at Brady's Resort on Island Lake, for supper, the fall business meeting and election of officers. Those attending should contact Don McCarrick or Mary Cockram.

The September meeting of the Session will be held Tuesday, Sept. 15, at 7 p. m. The Women's Association will meet at the Church on Wednesday, Sept. 16. There will be a potluck supper, beginning at 6:30 p. m., followed by the business meeting.

Novel 'Pizza' Stars Porklet On English Roll

Pizza shows no signs of slipping from the pinnacle of popularity. This blend of pork sausage, tomato sauce, herbs, stuffed green olives and mozzarella cheese demands repetition.

Fortunately the potential for change, while repeating the taste, of pizza is promising. By simply varying meat and crust, new pizza fashions are created.

One pizza cousin can be prepared with porklets and tasty traditional toppings. Toasted English muffin halves, substituting for yeast dough, make it convenient and a cinch.

Porklets are pork cubed steaks, according to Reba Staggs, National Live Stock and Meat Board meat authority. She recommends them as toppers for individual pizza-type sandwiches.

Porklet Pizza Sandwiches
6 porklets
1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
2 teaspoons instant minced onion
1/2 teaspoon basil
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
2 tablespoons lard or drippings
3 English muffins
6 slices mozzarella cheese
1/2 teaspoon oregano
6 large stuffed green olives, sliced

Combine tomato sauce, Parmesan cheese, onion, basil and garlic powder. Simmer 5 minutes. Split and toast English muffins. Cook porklets on both sides in lard or drippings over moderate heat, until done, 10 to 18 minutes. Place each browned porklet on each English muffin half. Spread 2 tablespoons tomato sauce mixture on top of each slice of mozzarella cheese. Sprinkle oregano on each cheese slice. Arrange slices of stuffed green olives on tops. Place under broiler 3 inches from heat until cheese melts, approximately 5 minutes. 6 servings.

Judges Surprised
"It's a little known fact that the judges are often as surprised as the audience when the finalists are announced," said Albert A. Marks, Jr., executive producer of the pageant.

Marks explained that the chance of guessing the 10 finalists is further complicated because the evening-gown winners are not announced.

He said once the finalists are chosen, the slate is wiped clean and the 10 girls compete again in all three categories. From the second round of competitions come five finalists, one who will be Miss America 1971.

Chairmen Mrs. Ray Petersen of Spalding and Mrs. Joseph Montpas of Powers, were assisted by the Mesdames, Verna Mikus, Edward Wiczech, Harland Hanson and Karl Behrend, all of Powers.

During the business meeting it was decided to hold all games and parties on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. Another card party is planned Tuesday, Sept. 22, at the Men-O-Mee Hotel at 7:15 p. m. In charge of arrangements will be Mrs. Mary Weaver and Mrs. Carl Swanson, assisted by the Mesdames Eugene Stockero, Nick Furlick, Albert Schultz, Walter Kluba and Percy Robertson, all of Hermansville.

On Tuesday, Sept. 15, there will be a lesson on paint embroidery at the Men-O-Mee Hotel at 7 p. m.

A Halloween costume party is planned for Saturday, Oct. 24 at the hotel. There will be square dancing, games and prizes and the public is invited.

New Miss America To Be Selected Tonight

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—The foot that slips into Miss America's golden slipper tonight could belong to one of the six girls who walked the victory trail in three nights of preliminary competitions—but not necessarily.

The preliminaries ended with Lisa Louise Donovan, Miss Florida, winning Friday night's talent competition, and Phyllis George, Miss Texas, victorious in the swimsuit contest.

In two previous nights of competition, talent winners were Judy Adams, Miss Oklahoma, and Suzanne Dennie, Miss Alabama, and the swimsuit winners were Kathleen Puanai O'Sullivan, Miss Hawaii, and Claudia Carmen Turner, Miss South Carolina.

Another victory will come today when Miss Congeniality is announced. She is chosen by a vote of the 50 contestants in the pageant.

Total Points
All 50 girls still have a chance at the title because the 10 finalists are chosen on the basis of total points scored in the competitions. A girl who won one night's swimsuit contest but scored low in talent and evening gown appearances may not be among the finalists.

Neither the public nor the judges know the scores. They are compiled by four certified public accountants.

Senior Citizens Make Plans For Halloween Party
HERMANVILLE — Forty-four persons attended the Senior Citizen Card Party on Wednesday night at the Men-O-Mee Hotel in Hermansville. Game prizes were awarded to Mrs. Carl Swanson, Mrs. Nick Furlick, Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon LaBonte, Sr., Mrs. Theodore Dault, Mrs. Victoria Chard, Fred Depotie, Mrs. Verna Mikus and Mrs. Lydia Trambly, Powers.

Three From Inland Firm End Careers

Three Inland Lime & Stone Company employees retired effective Sept. 1. They are Todd Binder, James Howland and Onnie Mackie.

Binder, who lives at 104 Pearl St., began work at the quarry on Aug. 5, 1933 and, during his 37 years with Inland, worked as brakeman, locomotive engineer and dispatcher. He is a member of Inland's Twenty-five Year Club.

Howland was hired by Inland on Nov. 17, 1947 and worked as a brakeman until 1962 when he became a boatwaste conveyorman. He lives at 177 River St. Mackie, who lived in Gould City but has retired to Rumely, had been an Inland employee since 1956. He worked at the ore mines in Ishpeming until 1964 and, when the Morris mine closed, he transferred to the Limestone operation where he worked as trackman.

Cycle Helmet Law Illegal, Judge Claims

MONROE (AP) — Monroe County District Judge Charles Golden Friday declared the 1970 state motorcycle crash helmet law unconstitutional and dismissed charges against a Monroe man arrested for violating the statute.

Freed as a result of Judge Golden's ruling was James Cupp who was arrested June 25 by Monroe police for driving a motorcycle without a helmet.

Police said Cupp was operating the motorcycle illegally at the time he was arrested, as he had only a restricted driver's license authorizing him to drive a particular automobile, but charges on that count were dropped along with the helmet violation.

Judge Golden said the 1970 statute, an amended form of a 1968 law repealed by an appellate court, was substantially the same as the 1968 law and hence also unconstitutional.

The earlier appellate decision had ruled that the state could legislate only for the benefit of the public, not for that of an individual. Wearing a helmet, it decided, helped only the individual.

In ruling on the law's constitutionality, Judge Golden said he was protecting what U.S. Supreme Court Justice Louis Brandeis called "every American's right to be let alone."

Group Discusses Park Development

The possibility of a park development in the Pickle Pond area adjacent to the new Senior Citizens Housing Project, off U. S. 2, was discussed at Wednesday night's meeting of the City Recreation Board. Recreation Director Dick Bonifas will contact local veterans groups to determine their interest and cooperation in planning a Veteran's Memorial Park.

The board voted to repair and paint the Manistique Youth Center. A letter from Mr. and Mrs. Earl Williamson praising and asking continuation of the Red Cross swimming program held this summer was read. The Williamson's particularly praised the efforts of the instructors and staff.

Next regular meeting will be held Oct. 21 and is open to the public.

Wildcat Strike Closes GM Plant

OSHAWA, Ont. (AP) — General Motors Corp. shut down its truck plant here Friday night after about 60 men on the night shift walked off their jobs to protest the company's failure to meet contract demands.

The workers, members of Local 222, United Auto Workers, set up a picket line outside the truck plant, known as the South Plant, and barricaded the plant gates with cars and burning tires to prevent the movement of finished 1971-model trucks to the shipping lot.

A union spokesman said a similar walkout hit the GM plant at St. Therese, Que., Friday night.

The walkouts were held in anticipation of a possible UAW strike against GM plants in the United States and Canada at midnight Monday night.

3 From County Get Draft Call

Three Delta County men have been notified to report to the Draft Board Office, 1103 Ludington St., on Tuesday, Sept. 15, at 1 p. m. for induction into the Armed Forces, while 14 others have received orders to report for physicals at the same time. All of the men will be transported to Milwaukee, Wis., on a charter bus.

David John Tebear, Escanaba, has been appointed leader of the group reporting for induction. The other men are Alex Emil Chenier Jr., Bark River, and John Howard Gierke, Fayette.

Leader of the group called for physicals is Patrick James Morrow, Escanaba. Republicans To Greet Bill Farr On U.P. Swing

Bill Farr, Republican candidate for Attorney General, on Monday will begin a campaign swing through the Upper Peninsula that will bring him to Manistique Monday night and to Escanaba Tuesday morning.

Starting at Sault Ste. Marie Monday morning, Farr will have a breakfast meeting there, then go to Newberry for a luncheon at the Falls Hotel, followed by a 6:30 p.m. dinner at the Fireside Inn at Manistique.

Delta County Republican Committee has arranged for Farr to breakfast with county delegates and party workers at 8 a.m. Tuesday at the House of Ludington.

After a press interview here at 9:15 a.m., Farr will travel to Menominee for a luncheon at the Riverview Country Club, thence to Iron Mountain for dinner at 7 at the Dickinson Hotel.

Farr's tour will carry him to Ironwood, Houghton and Marquette before his return to Lower Michigan.

Laid Off Union Members Called Back In Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. has ordered some laid off members of the United Auto Workers union to report back for work at 4 p.m. Monday — just eight hours before current three-year contracts expire.

Chrysler is a strike target this year along with General Motors.

Stanley J. Lyszyk, 46, Detroit, said late Friday that the company had recalled him after a two-month layoff in order to save some money in the event of a strike.

However, the move to recall Lyszyk and others at the specialized Warren, Mich., tool and die plant could simply be a move to capitalize on a threatened strike at GM. If GM is struck—and Chrysler is not — then business could be expected to increase sharply at Chrysler.

He urged the world community to accept a treaty providing for punishment or extradition of hijackers, and "to take joint action to despatch airline services with those countries which refuse to punish or extradite hijackers involved in international blackmail."

The White House said the cost of the force would be met by small increases in the $3 head tax on passengers leaving the country and the 8 per cent tax on domestic fares, and that it would request the hikes from Congress.

Phone Pioneers Holding Annual U.P. Gathering

The executive committee, Northern Council of Telephone Pioneers, met at the Pioneer Motor Inn on Sept. 11. Fifteen officers from seven clubs throughout the U. P. attended and Francis Mariatti of Sault Ste. Marie, chapter president, presided.

Today, approximately 120 Telephone Pioneers from the U. P. and lower Michigan are attending the annual party at the Highland Golf Club. Guests include Wolverine Vice-President John Reid and Secretary Harvey Mitchell of Detroit. Arrangements were made by Harold Olsen of Escanaba.

Pioneers are active in community projects, Bay Cliff, eye glass collection and various other civic projects.

United Foundation Sets Torch Drive Goal: $29,750,000

DETROIT (AP) — The United Foundation — which underwrites costs for nearly 200 health and community services in Wayne, Macomb and Oakland counties — recently set its 1970 Torch Drive goal at $29,750,000.

The fund's board of directors also called for a "hold-the-line policy for agency spending."

The new goal is a 2.7 per cent increase over the $28,975,000 of last year. Campaign general chairman John J. Nevin said he was confident the goal would be met and exceeded. However, Nevin, a Ford Motor Co. vice president, termed the current economic and social climate "unsettled."

Girls Following Suit In Offices

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The gals are following suit in suits of their own at City Hall.

First to ditch skirts and cover up with pants was Mary Phelan, associate administrative analyst in the Community Development Department. Her reason: Comfort.

The girls in purchasing then got permission from their boss to dress likewise.

The scene around typing tables and water coolers throughout the hallways changed from legs to pants.

Karen Anderson, a city insurance clerk, says the leggings cut down on wear and tear of hose and are in style.

But, she concedes, "some of the men resent them."

6 Persons Jailed In Bombing Plot

TYLER, Tex. (AP) — Six persons were arrested Friday night in what Sheriff Harlan Long described as a plot to blow up the city public schools administration building.

Authorities said the six were in Smith County Jail and two other persons were being sought.

Long said his men and FBI agents made the arrests in private residences in and near Tyler and that 25 home-made firebombs were seized at a residence nine miles east of this East Texas city.

At a news conference after the 9 p.m. arrests, the names of those charged were not divulged, but it was learned that they were of both sexes, ranging in age from 16 to 69.

"None of the persons involved are members of any radical or militant organization," Long said.

Diving, Shooting Awards Presented

Several officers of the Escanaba Police Department and one member of the Fire Department received recognition for completion of training and for marksmanship. The awards and certificates were presented by Police Chief Richard Frederick.

Officers Ronald Kaltenbach and James Stasewich and Fireman James McDonough completed two years of studying and underwater practice dives under the supervision of instructors Officers Leonard Goddard and Edward Bertrand.

Police Chief Frederick presented the officers their certificates making them qualified scuba divers.

The Escanaba Police Department now has a five-man under water search and recovery team which is one of the very few in the Upper Peninsula, and Chief Frederick stated that his divers would be available to aid other law enforcement agencies whenever they are called upon if at all possible.

Instructor Goddard said that two years of training may seem like a long time but "we want our men to be able to dive whenever they are needed and under any conditions that may prevail at the time, and in order for them to do this in safety they had to complete many hours of book work and class room studying, also to know and understand every function of all diving gear used. Many practice dives had to be completed of varying depths. All these things have been completed by these men and they are now certified qualified scuba divers," he said.

Chief Frederick presented three patrolman shooting badges for their scores in competitive matches held in Escanaba and at Jackson. Officer Robert Gravelle and Officer Walter Deneau were awarded marksman badges for their scores in the Escanaba Police shoot-off held at the Civic Center. A score of 220 to 240 out of a possible 300 must be made in a competitive shoot to be awarded a marksman badge.

Officer Bertrand was awarded a Expert Badge for his score in the Jackson Shoot. A score of 270 to 290 out of a possible 300 must be made to be awarded a Expert Badge. Officer Bertrand shot a 276 score.

Fund Trouble Fails To Hinder Church Unit Work

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Although it faces an uncertain, belt-tightening future because of financial difficulties, the National Council of Churches is carrying on its services for member denominations, its general secretary said today.

Dr. R. H. Edwin Espy, the secretary, said misinformed attacks on the council also have hurt it. But "the work goes on," he said in a report to a meeting of the council's general board, policy-making unit of the cooperative Christian organization.

"It has a mandate from the churches, and it remains faithful," he told delegates from 33 participating Protestant and Orthodox denominations totaling 42.5 million members.

The two-day meeting runs through Sunday.

Crusader Gridders Shut Out Eagles 28-0

By MIKE UTT

STEPHENSON — Combining a powerful ground attack with a ferocious defense, the Holy Name Crusaders notched a 28-0 win over the Stephenson Eagles Friday night for their second triumph of the young 1970 grid campaign.

The victorious Crusaders were superb on defense, allowing Stephenson a total net yardage of 19 in the game and only five yards rushing. The Eagles were unable to crack the Crusader front wall for any first downs until late in the fourth quarter, when they picked up two on a pair of 15-yard penalties against Holy Name.

On offense, senior halfback Tom Ness shook off the injuries that plagued him all of last season and early this year to lead Holy Name in the rushing department with 101 yards in 11 carries. As a team, the Crusaders piled up 286 yards on the ground.

Other Standouts

Other offensive standouts were Bill Skradski, who rushed for 67 yards in 15 carries and scored one touchdown, and John DeGrand, who picked up 61 yards in 12 carries and put 12 of the Crusaders' 28 points on the board.

Late in the first quarter, Stephenson's Gerry Bebo dropped back to punt, but kicked the ball into one of his own teammates and Holy Name took over on the Eagles' 20-yard line.

Skradski and DeGrand moved the ball down to the three yard line in five plays before the gun sounded to end the first period. On the first play of the second quarter, DeGrand took the ball into the end zone for the Crusaders' first touchdown. Quarterback Joe Kroll then flipped a pass to Joe Harvey for the two-point conversion.

Touchdown Nullified

A motion penalty nullified another Holy Name touchdown later in the quarter when DeGrand ran into the end zone from 21 yards out. The Crusaders were unable to do anything after that and Stephenson got the ball on their own 23-yard line.

After picking up nine yards in three plays, the Eagles punted and DeGrand gathered the ball in at his own 30-yard line and carried it back 45 yards to the Stephenson 25.

Once again the Crusaders were unable to get into the end zone and gave the ball back to the Eagles before the first half ended with Holy Name ahead by an 8-0 margin.

The Crusaders scored again with 1:24 remaining in the third quarter after Joe Hughes ran a punt back 12 yards to the Stephenson 42 yard line. DeGrand bulled his way into the end zone from a yard out eight plays later, but his run for the two-point conversion was short of the goal line.

Ness Scampers

Holy Name got the ball back on the Stephenson 43 yard line following a punt. On the first play, Ness tucked the ball under his arm and scampered 42 yards down the sideline before being tripped up just short of the end zone.

Skradski then hit paydirt and also ran the conversion, giving the Crusaders a 22-0 lead with just 47 seconds gone in the fourth quarter.

Holy Name will get back into Great Northern Conference action again next week when they play host to the Menominee Maroons Saturday night.

The Scoring Summary:

HN - DeGrand, 3-yd. run (Harvey pass from Kroll).

HN - DeGrand, 1-yd. plunge (run failed).

HN - Skradski, 1-yd. plunge (Skradski run).

HN - Moberg, 5-yd. run (run failed).

Red Wing Pair Inks Contracts

DETROIT (AP)—Veteran Detroit Red Wings Gary Bergman and Wayne Connolly signed their contracts for the upcoming National Hockey League season, the club said Friday.

Bergman, a defenseman, is in his seventh year as a Red Wing. In the last season, he scored 23 points on six goals and 17 assists and played in 69 games. He also led the Red Wings in penalties, with 122 minutes.

Right wing Connolly played in all 76 games last season and got 59 points on 23 goals and 36 assists. He was obtained by Detroit from the Minnesota North Stars in February 1969 for Danny Lawson.

More people get more news from newspapers than all other sources combined.

Denver Ready To Do Battle For Simpson

DENVER (AP) — It will take a court injunction to keep former Michigan State University star Ralph Simpson out of his new Denver Rockets uniform, the management of the American Basketball Association team says.

"The move is up to the league," said Bill Ringsby, president of the Rockets. "Unless the ABA and Commissioner Jack Dolph can get an injunction to keep Simpson from playing then he will play."

The 6-5 rookie was signed as a hardship case by Denver in June, and since has been the subject of a controversy that extends into the merger-minded National Basketball Association. He currently is in uniform, practicing with the Rockets.

"They must file an answer to that suit by Monday" in U. S. District Court in Detroit, Ringsby said. "If they seek an injunction barring Simpson, then we feel the injunction can be beat and if the injunction is defeated, then the ABA has no case against Simpson."

Although a bylaw prohibits a player from suiting up, even in practice, without an approved contract, Simpson is working out with Coach Joe Belmont at Regis College here.

"We are honoring our contract with Simpson," Belmont explained. "Our lawyers have advised us to go ahead until they the ABA stop us and it must be by injunction."

Look at the distance to the hole and practice distance putting. You must acquire a feel for distance. Do this in practice and then apply your concentration to distance rather than direction and you will find a remarkable improvement. Your score will be lower.

Neeson, Mickelson Pace Emerald Win

SAULT STE. MARIE — The Manistie Emeralds behind the versatile throwing arm of their three-year veteran quarterback, Ken Neeson who connected on four touchdown passes, three to end Dave Mickelson, got back on the winning track here last night in a big way by blasting the Soo Blue Devils 28-12.

Neeson connected on 10 of 16 pass attempts for 217 yards in spearheading the Emeralds to their first victory of the young season.

On the very first play after the kickoff, Neeson began his scoring derby by hitting Mickelson on a 59 yard touchdown pass. Jerry Sample missed the extra point and the Emeralds were out in front, 6-0.

Midway through the first quarter, the Soo mounted a drive and scored on a 10-yard run by their hard-running back Mike Worley but failed to convert on the two-point conversion and with less than three minutes to go in the quarter the game was tied at 6-6.

On the very next play after the Soo kickoff, Neeson hit Mickelson again, this time on a 51-yard scoring strike and before the Blue Devils could get adjusted, Manistie had the lead right back again. Neeson then passed to Sample for the two-point conversion as the quarter ended with Manistie on top, 14-6.

Joel Hoholik stopped a Soo drive near the end of the second quarter by recovering a fumble on the Soo 40-yard line. With Neeson connecting on several key passes in mounting another Emerald drive, Manistie scored again. Neeson climaxed the drive by tossing a two-yard strike to Mickelson, his third TD in the half.

The try for the extra point failed on an unusual penalty when one of the Emeralds was caught without his mouthpiece in and the team was given a 15 yard penalty. After the miscue the try again for the extra point failed and the half

Tiger Tales

By The Associated Press
Detroit Tiger coaches Grover Resinger and Wally Moses will neither confirm nor deny they do not plan to be with the team next season.

One report in a national sports weekly mentioned that possibility if manager Mayo Smith is not with the Tigers next year. "Let's just say I have no plans on coaching anywhere else," said third base coach Resinger Friday.

"No, I haven't told anyone I won't be here next year," said first base coach Moses. "Besides, that's up to (general manager) Jim Campbell anyway."

Flint's Bob Reed hurled the best relief for Detroit in quite a while Friday night, giving up just one walk and a single in 4 2/3 innings.

"My curve was working well," Reed said. "But I didn't have my best stuff."

The Tigers had two men on with no one out in the ninth inning and couldn't score. Mickey Stanley got the first out by taking a third strike. He fouled a couple pitches down the first baseline and didn't attempt to bunt the runners to third and second.

"I wanted him to hit to right because it's harder to get the double play on that side," said manager Mayo Smith. "If he would have bunted Washington would have intentionally walked (Al) Kaline to load the bases, then brought in a lefthander to pitch to (Jim) Northrup."

"I am really thrilled to get a chance to play football," says Chastain. "I just don't want to pass anything up when I have the opportunity."

No Opposition To Grid Boycott

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP) — Plans to boycott Western Michigan University's home football game against Brigham Young University Sept. 19 have drawn no open opposition, student leaders and school officials said Friday.

The Associated Student Government approved a resolution earlier this week calling upon Western students to skip the game because "Brigham Young University personifies racism."

The Sept. 19 game ends Western's five game series with the Utah school under a contract signed nearly a decade ago.

Western's athletic director announced last spring that the contract will not be renewed and President James Miller said the reason was that Brigham Young's tenets go against the Michigan school's nondiscrimination policy.

Arthur O'Connor, Western's public relations director, said Friday the boycott's success or failure cannot be judged in advance. "I don't think there's any way of really judging how effective it may be."

O'Connor noted that Western's fortunes in its opening game at Central Michigan this Saturday could affect attendance, especially if the Broncos are beaten badly.

John Hohman, editor of the student newspaper, said, "I think it (the boycott) is going to get pretty wide support." He stressed that the boycott is not aimed at Western's officials but is designed "to show we don't want to have any affiliation with a racist school."

The newspaper, the Western Herald, is backing the boycott as is the inter-organizational council, representing most student groups.

Hohman said there are no plans for demonstrations at the game because "we simply want people to stay away."

The world field archery championships will be held Sept. 11-12 at Rhonda, South Wales.

Jets Shut Out Rock In League Contest

POWERS — After piling up 16 points in the opening period of play, the North Central Jets scored again in the fourth quarter and blanked the Rock Little Giants by a 24-0 margin in a Wolverine Conference grid clash.

North Central got on the board early in the opening quarter when quarterback Lee Vincent tossed a 30-yard touchdown pass to Don Sharkey. Jim Gaber kicked the extra point to give the Jets a 7-0 lead.

A 20-yard run by Mike Maule set up the Jet's second touchdown in the first quarter. Gaber carried the final yard to paydirt and also kicked the extra point.

North Central's final two points in the quarter came on a safety on the kickoff after Gaber's touchdown.

North Central went into its bag of tricks to score again in the fourth quarter. Maule took a handoff from Vincent and then threw the ball back to him to complete the 20-yard scoring play. Vincent then threw a pass to John Dani for the two-point conversion.

Coach Mike Forsberg singled out the play of linemen Dave Barron and Scott Bellmore and linebackers Maule and Bob Weissert on defense. Forsberg said that Maule missed a chance to score when a clipping penalty nullified his touchdown run after intercepting a pass.

North Central is idle next week, while Rock travels to Pembine, Wis., for a Wolverine Conference clash with the Panthers.

Braves Win Breather, Blast Indians 42-0

By DON HOWES

NEWBERRY — Coach Bob Richard's Gladstone football machine shifted into high gear here last night by unveiling a deadly aerial attack to go with a galloping ground attack, as the Braves went on the warpath trampling the Newberry Indians 42-0 in opening up defense of their Great Lakes Conference Title.

The Braves chalked up their second straight victory of the young campaign without working up a full scale sweat. Gladstone scored six touchdowns and never let the Indians inside of their 30 yard line all night.

Gladstone dominated the game in every department. The Braves rushed for 188 yards in 39 carries for an average of 4.8 yards per carry. Gary Young led the way with 83 yards in only four carries followed by Gary LeClaire with 38 yards and Dick DeMay with 29 yards. Nine Braves' backs all got into the rushing game.

In the air Gladstone hit on eight of eleven passes for 174 yards with Bob Prins connecting on seven of eight attempts giving the Braves 362 total yards from scrimmage while limiting the Indians to 70 yards overall.

Strike Fast

The Braves scored the first six times they had the ball. On the second play of the opening quarter, Gary Young behind some beautiful blocking by the interior line rambled 70 yards for the Braves first tally. Wayne Marshall's try for the extra point was good and with less than a minute gone in the game, the Braves were out front 7-0.

The next time the Braves got the ball they moved 52 yards in nine plays, aided by some well executed power plays, which they used off and on for the entire game. The drive was climaxed with Gary LeClaire plunging over from the five yard line. Marshall converted on the extra point and with 3:53 to go in the quarter, the Braves led 14-0.

The Indians, trying to go for a first down, threw the ball right into the Braves Jerry Erickson's hands on the next play. Erickson broke away and scampered 48 yards to the Newberry two yard line. On the next play Young was into the end zone again and the Braves led 20-0 with 1:58 to go in the quarter.

Newberry, who had only four first downs for the entire game, finally got their first one with a minute to go in the quarter, but on the very next play the Indians fumbled and DeMay recovered for the Braves. Just before the quarter ended Prins threw a 33 yard pass to Keith Demeuse.

LeClaire Scores Again

With six seconds lapsed in the second quarter, Gladstone was on the scoreboard again when LeClaire on a nice end sweep rambled in from the eight. Marshall followed by scampering into the end zone for a two point conversion.

LeClaire - 8 yard run, two point conversion good.

Trombley - 8 yard pass, Marshall's kick good.

LeClaire - 3 yard run, Marshall's kick good.

Edge Of Night Comes Early For Detroit '9'

DETROIT (AP)—The Washington Senators have officially shortened the Detroit Tigers' season by two weeks.

But the Tigers already look like they're on vacation as they dropped a 4-2 decision to Washington Friday night for their fourth consecutive loss. It mathematically eliminated them from the East Division "race" of the American League so they don't have to worry about a week of playoffs and a week of World Series games.

The elimination came one year and 359 days after Detroit clinched its pennant in 1968.

"Down? Sure we're down. When you lose you get down on yourself," said third base coach Grover Reisinger in the solemn Tiger clubhouse.

"But these guys aren't feeling sorry for themselves," he added of the players, whose heads are drooping so low these days they almost step on them.

The Bengals were to meet Washington again today with Mickey Lolich, 12-17, scheduled to pitch for Detroit against Dick Bosman, 15-1.

Detroit is in fourth place, 19 games behind leader Baltimore which should soon clinch the title. The Senators are last, 25½ games out.

"It's easy when it's all over to say you should have done this, you should have done that," growled Tiger manager Mayo Smith. He was referring to the game but the statement could just as easily refer to the season.

Thursday Detroit lost was embarrassing also since it was the first major league start and first triumph for Bill Gogolewski.

He worked 5 2-3 innings and Darold Knowles and Horacio Pina finished up by blanking the Tigers, who had a hitting "binge" with eight—one more than the total of the previous two games.

Gibson Handcuffs Mets Handily, 5-2

The Bob Gibson-Tom Seaver duel was billed as a matchup between Cy Young Award winners but the St. Louis ace wasn't interested. His only concern was beating the New York Mets and he did so convincingly.

"I go out to beat the Mets," Gibson a veteran of 12 National League seasons said. "Not Seaver."

Five-Hitter

The hard-throwing right-hander stifled the Mets on five hits as the Cardinals whipped Seaver and his mates 5-2 Friday night, dropping the New Yorkers' one-half game behind the East Division leading Pittsburgh Pirates, who were idle.

The Chicago Cubs, another half-length back, also did not play.

New York newspapers headlined the meeting between Seaver, the 1969 Cy Young recipient and Gibson, the 1968 winner, the last two days.

Praises Seaver

"Seaver's a good pitcher," Gibson said. "But I don't carry on about him the way you guys do," referring to the writers.

"Not unless he's a real good hitter."

Seaver didn't do much hitting nor did any of his mates as Gibson rolled to his 21st victory of the season, striking out seven Mets. He has lost six. His lifetime mark over New York now stands at 24-7.

10 Strikeouts

Seaver, 18-11, struck out 10 in six innings, increasing his season's total to 274, a National League record for right-handed pitchers. The righty however ran into trouble in one inning—the fourth—when the Cards scored four times. Jose Cardenal triggered the rally with a two-run double.

Cleon Jones had three of the hits off Gibson, running his hitting streak to 18 games.

With the East battle figuring to go right down to the wire, Gibson was asked his opinion but wouldn't predict a winner.

Bucs Better Hitters

"Pittsburgh has the edge in hitting and the Mets have the pitching while the Cubs have balance," he said. "And I suppose we have a chance, remote, but possible." The Cards are eight games back with 17 games to play.

In other NL games, San Diego edged Cincinnati 3-2, Houston nipped Atlanta 3-2, Montreal blanked Philadelphia 1-0 and San Francisco downed Los Angeles 4-3.

Gary Cuozzo 'Big Train' In Railroading Of Bears

CHICAGO (AP)—Gary Cuozzo is a No. 1 quarterback and he proved it dramatically Friday night when he came off the bench to hurl the Minnesota Vikings to a dramatic 31-30 victory over the Chicago Bears in a National Football League exhibition game.

Played Behind Units

Cuozzo, a former backup man for Johnny Unitas at Baltimore who has been given the reins at Minnesota while Joe Kapp has been busy holding out, engineered the Vikings to a 24-16 lead in the fourth quarter before taking a rest.

The Bears took advantage of the move when their punter Bobby Joe Green placed a kick on the Viking 2-yard line and substitute quarterback Bob Lee fumbled.

The Bears recovered, took it in for a touchdown and three plays later took the lead 30-24 when Bennie McRae intercepted a Lee pass and raced for a touchdown with about five minutes to play.

Cuozzo came off the bench and kept pounding at the Bear defenses until he broke them down with a 40-yard, game-winning touchdown pass to Clint Jones with five seconds left to play.

Come Off Bench

Cuozzo said he decided on Jones because the Bears seemed to be "keying on Gene Washington. The minute I saw Jones get by the linebacker (Doug Buffone) I let him have it."

Even in defeat the Bears considered the game a tremendous lift since they were playing without three regular defensemen including the great Dick Butkus who has a pulled hamstring but will be ready for next week's season opener against the New York Giants.

1-4-1 Record

The Bears closed their exhibition slate with a 1-4-1 record. The Vikings, after losing their first two, finished up with four straight victories.

In Friday night's only other preseason contest, the Denver Broncos edged the Boston Patriots 16-14 at Salt Lake City, Utah. Bobby Howfield's 52-yard field goal with 48 seconds remaining, his third of the game, enabled the Broncos to come from behind.

A 39-yard punt return by Bill Thompson with 1:50 left set up the winning kick.

The Patriots, who led 8-3 at halftime, had moved in front 14-13 with 7:58 to play when cornerback Daryle Johnson ran 60 yards with an interception of Steve Tensi's pass.

Final Exhibitions

The weekend's exhibition slate finishes the preseason activity for the NFL. The regular season begins next Friday night.

On tap tonight in exhibitions are Buffalo at Green Bay, Baltimore at Washington, Detroit at Cincinnati, Cleveland at the New York Giants, Atlanta at Miami, Pittsburgh at Oakland, San Diego at New Orleans, Kansas City at St. Louis and San Francisco at Los Angeles.

Houston is at Philadelphia in an afternoon game Sunday with the New York Jets playing at Dallas Sunday night in a game to be nationally televised by CBS-TV.

'Hog-Hunting' On Stanford's Gridiron Menu

By The Associated Press

Stanford's Jim Plunkett goes Hog hunting and Southern California's Jimmy Jones will try to set some traps in Bear country tonight in the highlight games of college football's opening weekend.

Plunkett and Stanford, ranked 10th in The Associated Press preseason poll, will take on fourth-ranked Arkansas at Little Rock, Ark., in a game that will be televised nationally by ABC starting at 6 p.m. EDT.

Arkansas, nicknamed the Razorbacks, but called the Hogs by their adoring fans, has run up two straight 9-1 seasons behind quarterback Bill Montgomery, who once again will be at the controls.

Jones leads third-ranked Southern California into the land of Bear Bryant for a game against No. 16 Alabama at Birmingham.

The season kicked off Friday night, with Missouri thrashing Baylor 38-0 at St. Louis.

Tailback Joe Moore, the nation's third-leading rusher in 1969, tore gazing holes in the Baylor line and then surprised the outmanned Bears with a 72-yard touchdown pass to Mel Gray in the third quarter.

In another Friday night game, Howard Hall threw two touchdowns passes as Southern University defeated North Carolina A&T 21-6 in the Football Coaches' Foundational Invitational Classic before 25,000 at New York's Yankee Stadium.

Other games tonight included Duke vs. Florida at Jacksonville, Fla.; Louisville at Florida State; Oklahoma State vs. Mississippi State at Jackson, Miss.; Oklahoma at Southern Methodist; Texas-Arlington at Texas Christian; Tulane at Texas Tech, and California vs. Oregon at Portland, Ore.

Packers Get Kevin Hardy

GREEN BAY, Wis.—Kevin Hardy, one of the nation's best defensive linemen at Notre Dame in 1968, was acquired by the Green Bay Packers from the San Francisco 49ers Friday afternoon for an undisclosed—but very high—draft choice.

Hardy, 25, had been switched to offense by the San Francisco 49ers this season, after missing all last year because of knee surgery. He was acquired by the 49ers after being the New Orleans Saints' first draft choice in 1968, when Commissioner Pete Rozelle awarded him and a 1969 first round pick to the 49ers in payment for tight end Dave Parks. Parks had played out his option, and then signed with the Saints.

The Packers said that Hardy, 6 feet 5 inches and 260 pounds, would be used on defense. He was not expected to report in time for Saturday's game against Buffalo.

Lions Stressing Defense In Game With Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Detroit Lions, boasting a tough defense and a lot of veterans, clash with the scrappy Cincinnati Bengals here tonight in a National Football League exhibition game.

Alex Karras heads the defensive unit that has held the opposition to 80 points in five games, and the Bengals still face the task of getting their offense rolling.

"We're going to have to generate it against a real good defense," said Bengals Coach Paul Brown. "They've got 87 years of experience on their starting positions (defensive) compared to our 13 years."

The Bengals have tallied 98 points in winning two games, losing two and tying one, but the defense has scored five touchdowns on four intercepted passes and a fumble return.

"They're a young, very aggressive team," Lions Coach Joe Schmidt said, stressing the phrase, "very aggressive."

The Bengals played the Green Bay Packers to a 10-10 deadlock last week and upset the Cleveland Browns 31-24 two weeks ago.

Bing To Report To Piston Camp Despite Squabble

DETROIT (AP)—Despite his uncertain contract status, ace Detroit Piston guard Dave Bing Friday told team officials he will report for training drills along with other veteran players at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti Monday.

Bing, the Pistons' scoring and assist champ for the past four years, told general manager Ed Coil he will check in Sunday.

"Dave has reiterated to me he wants to play with the Pistons and stay in Detroit," Coil said. "Dave would like to sign a new contract with us and we, of course, would like nothing better."

Bing's two-year contract with the Pistons ran out after last season. He has signed to join the Virginia team of the American Basketball Association in 1971-72, but says he will play out his option with the Pistons this season.

Piston rookies and some veterans will finish their first week of drills at Eastern Michigan Saturday.

Don Michaelson Scores Four TDs As L'Anse Romps

By The Associated Press

Don Michaelson's four touchdowns paced L'Anse to a 48-0 victory over Calumet Friday in one of seven high school football games played in Michigan—all in the Upper Peninsula.

The scoring spree lifted Michaelson's point total to 47 in two games.

In other games Bessemer downed Maple of Wisconsin 30-18, Escanaba Holy Name blanked Stephenson 28-0 and Gladstone crushed Newberry 42-0. Also, Ironwood nipped Iron River West Iron County 26-24, Manistique beat Sault Ste. Marie 28-12, and Sault Ste. Marie L'Anse edged Brimley 7-6.

The season gets fully underway next weekend when the Lower Peninsula schools begin playing.

U-M Squad Works On Kicking Game

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—The Michigan football team worked extensively on all aspects of its kicking game Friday, in preparation for the final pre-season scrimmage Saturday before the opening game against Arizona Sept. 19 here.

Coach Bo Schembechler named Paul Staroba as his top punter, Tim Killian as his place kicker, and Dana Coin to do the kickoff chores.

Shipping Magnate
Bids $3.2 Million
On Former 'Queen'

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — A Chinese shipping magnate who made the $3.2-million high bid for the liner Queen Elizabeth says he plans to turn her into a seagoing international university.

The bid by C. Y. Tung of Hong Kong at a bankruptcy auction Wednesday saved the former first lady of the Atlantic—now tied up here—from going to the scrap yard.

Italian scrap dealers had made a precaution offer of $2.4 million for the liner.

Tung said his C. Y. Tung Island Navigation Co., which owns 100 other passenger ships and freighters, would spend $4.5 million refitting the Elizabeth either in Hong Kong or Singapore to play the seas as a luxury cruise ship until plans for the university are completed.

He said his C. Y. Tung Foundation would finance the floating university at the start, but that he hoped to persuade the United Nations to take over permanent sponsorship.

The university, Tung said, "would be a step toward mutual understanding among many people of the world now in conflict with each other."

Dysentery Blamed
On Hawaiian Poi

WAILUKU, Maui, Hawaii (AP) — Poi served at a family luau early last month has been traced as the cause of Hawaii's worst dysentery outbreak.

The tick, pasty substance apparently was laced with a microbe called shigella, says state epidemiologist Lloyd Guthrie.

Before the epidemic subsided, more than 4,500 Maui residents were stricken. Island health authorities had counted only 22 dysentery cases in the previous four years.

Attend the Church of Your Choice

Talking it over

Some of the key moments in our education are those times when we discussed with someone older the interesting things we learn.

But, to speak frankly about religious education today, one of the serious handicaps facing boys and girls who are sent (not brought) to church is that they have little opportunity to "talk it over" at home.

Moral and spiritual growth is nurtured by family discussion of the truths taught in classroom and pulpit. But this presumes that parents and children together are sharing the experiences of worshipping God and studying the Christian Faith. Candidly, too, it presumes that the parents will be the pace-setters ... advanced enough in their own religious growth to answer simple, urgent questions.

It was always fun to tell "Sis" what we had learned at school. But, remember, it was Dad and Mother we counted on when we couldn't find the answers!

For your children's sake — and your own — attend church regularly.
